Examiner Interview of 03/29/2006

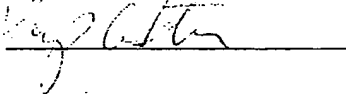

A telephonic interview was conducted on March 29, 2006 between Examiner Cadugan and Applicant's representative Philip Steiner. A discussion of the Examiner's determination of the relevant art made of record and proposed amendments to the submitted claims was conducted. In the interview, Examiner Cadugan noted that with minor amendments to the claims, the case would be in a condition for allowance. The only colorable relevant art being that of published US patent application S/N 09/965,282 to Cassidy.

Applicant hereby agrees to the Examiner's proposed claim amendments contained in the notice of allowance dated 04/03/2006 and submits this formal response in acknowledgement thereof.

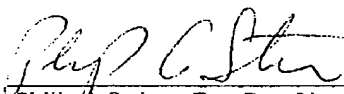

Applicant thanks Examiner Cadugan for the constructive remarks and Examiner's amendments discussed on March 29, 2006, and greatly appreciates the notice of allowance dated 04/03/2006.

In the event the examiner wishes to discuss any aspect of this response, please contact the attorney at the telephone number identified below.

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being transmitted to the USPTO by facsimile on this date of 04/30/06 By Philip A Steiner, Esq;

Respectfully submitted,
